

Offender Transport

About us

We are a group of organisations in the private, not-for-profit and third sectors who have come together as the Offender Services Partnership, because we passionately believe we have a contribution to make to managing offenders to reduce crime and protect the public. We aim to work with public sector providers to help them improve their performance.

What we offer

We offer solutions for offender transport, for example both to support accredited programmes and unpaid work. We have considerable experience of delivering secure logistical services solutions within the Criminal Justice environment. We:

- Transport over 420,000 detainees a year per annum across England, Wales and all of Scotland, with over 2,000 staff and 540 vehicles
- Provide the national secure juvenile transport service for the Youth Justice Board, with 70 staff strategically based throughout England & Wales
- Transport and track 70,000 cases of forensic evidence across the whole of UK each year

Our track record

- Continuous improvement: through innovation and experience we have achieved month on month improvements in service delivery and quality of prisoner care
- Innovative solutions: The development of a customised Detainee Escort Management System to plan and schedule prisoner movements and electronically capture details of every prisoner transaction
- Added value: Providing additional escorting service to the courts to enable trained Prison Officers to return to core activities in prison
- Customer care: Ensuring that prisoners are delivered in a timely manner for court appearances, whilst being afforded the care, consideration and support demanded by The Prison Service decency agenda

Your partnership with us will provide

- A dedicated service to meet the diverse transport requirements of Criminal Justice
- Trained staff offering raised levels of security, as well as standards of safety and decency
- Improved levels of attendance for Accredited Programmes and Unpaid Work
- Free up professional staff to do their core business
